ABOUT THE NORTH SUBURBAN CONCERT CHORALE

The North Suburban Concert Chorale (NSCC) performs with the North Suburban Concert Band (NSCB) annually at its Christmas Concerts. It was originally organized in 1989 by then-NSCB-director Michael Halstenson. Bruce Phelps, Anoka H.S. choir director, took over the baton for several years. He was followed by the current director, Duayne Malewicki.

The Chorale attracts singers, ranging from high school age to senior citizens, from church and community choirs in the north and west suburbs. The non-auditioned group is currently limited to 118 singers. The Chorale rehearses for seven weeks prior to these performances.

DUAYNE MALEWICKI, NSCC DIRECTOR

Duayne Malewicki is in his twelfth year as the director of the NSCC. A native of Winona, MN, Duayne graduated from Winona State with a B.A. in Music and English in 1958 and an M.S. in Music Education in 1963. Duayne taught English and was the choir director in Mabel, MN; he was the elementary vocal music supervisor in Virginia, MN; and in the Osseo Area Schools (District 279) he was the Vocal Music Supervisor as well as a vocal music teacher and choral director.

While in Osseo, he helped organize a scholarship fund performing group called the Wastebasket Revue with teachers, administrators, staff and community members in the Osseo Schools. 2016 will mark its 49th year of scholarship fund performance, with over a million dollars awarded in scholarships.

Duayne organized and directed the District 279 Children's Select Chorus from 1967 to his retirement in 1993. He received the Superintendent's Award for "Outstanding Achievement and Dedication to Education" as well as the Brooklyn Park Lions' award for "Citizen of the Year." He has been named to the Minnesota Music Educators Hall of Fame. He continues to be active as a music adjudicator for local and state music contests.

JENNIFER LESLIE, NSCC ACCOMPANIST

Jennifer Leslie is a retired elementary teacher who has chosen music as an avocation. She is married to Dennis and has two grandchildren with two more on the way. Jennifer loves golf, reading, cabin time, travelling and friends. She is happy to be accompanying the North Suburban Concert Chorale.

ABOUT THE TWIN CITIES YOUTH CHORALE

Founded in 2008, the Twin Cities Youth Chorale (TCYC) promotes choral excellence through a family-friendly schedule that blends the fun of making new friends with exceptional instructional and musical experiences. It is an auditioned group of 2nd through 8th graders, open to public, private, parochial and homeschooled students across the metropolitan region. Today's members represent over 30 schools from 15 communities. TCYC rehearses weekly during the school year and has performed for over 13,000 people in local and regional concert venues including The Basilica of Saint Mary, Minnesota Orchestra Hall and Bethel University's Benson Great Hall. Enriching collaborations and educational workshops are also a part of TCYC's schedule and have included world premieres of new literature and appearances with Kantorei Chamber Choir, St. John's University Choirs, Two Rivers Chorale, Agape Beat, North Suburban Concert Band and Chorale, and Up with People.

Information about the TCYC's upcoming schedule can be found on the TCYC website: www.tcyouthchorale.org

TWIN CITIES YOUTH CHORALE LEADERS

Ann Wingert-Williams, Artistic Director, is a founding director of TCYC. She holds a B.A. in Elementary Education and Music Education from the College of St. Benedict, St. Joseph, MN, as well as a choral Master of Arts Degree from the University of St. Thomas. Choruses under Ann's direction have performed with The Dale Warland Singers and The Minnesota Orchestra. For 30 years, Ann has served as an elementary music teacher in the Osseo Area Schools and is a cantor at The Basilica of St. Mary, Minneapolis, MN.

Stefan Wolf, Assistant Artistic Director, holds a B.A. in Music with a Vocal Concentration and a K-12 Vocal and Classroom Music license from the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul, MN. Stefan currently teaches K-5 Elementary Music in the Anoka-Hennepin school district and has previously been active as a private voice instructor and church choir director.

Ju Sun Kim, Accompanist, is a Ph. D. candidate of Music Theory at the University of Arizona, Tucson, and currently serves as Organist/Accompanist at Golden Valley Lutheran Church. She holds her Masters of Music in Music Theory from Texas State University (San Marcos) and a Bachelor's in Musicology/Music Theory (with Piano Performance minor) from Sungshin Women's University, South Korea. Ms. Kim is also an honored member of Pi Kappa Lambda. She teaches piano, and has also served as an accompanist for various soloists, instrumentalists and community choruses around the Twin Cities.

ABOUT THE NORTH SUBURBAN CONCERT BAND

The North Suburban Concert Band (NSCB) is a non-audition community band designed to encourage post-high-school-age citizens of the northern suburbs of the Twin Cities in the performance and enjoyment of music. The group strongly emphasizes quality through its direction, musical literature and rehearsal requirements. New members are always welcome.

The North Suburban Concert Band is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization. Ticket sales, donations, sponsorships, membership dues and grants fund the organization. Contributions are tax deductible and are always appreciated.

More information about the band, including its upcoming schedule can be found on the band's website: www.nscband.org.

JOHN ROSNER, NSCB DIRECTOR

John Rosner is currently in his tenth season as music director of the North Suburban Concert Band. He is the sixth director of the NSCB and has conducted over 100 concerts since taking the podium. John comes from central Minnesota and graduated from St. Cloud State University with honors in Music Education with an emphasis in piano and composition in 1998. Rosner is pursuing a Masters of Arts degree in Wind Band Conducting from the American Band College through Sam Houston State University.

He is currently director of bands at Elk River High School. His bands have performed in Ireland, Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Hawaii, San Diego, New York, New Orleans, Chicago, St. Louis, and all around the upper Midwest.

John and his wife, Abigail, reside in Elk River, Minnesota along with their first child, William James, whom they welcomed into the world this past February.
